15 Dear Uri,

I understand that you are very angry with your parents. But you must understand that they are only worried about you because they love you. They know that many young drivers don't have enough experience. These drivers often make mistakes that cause road accidents. Your parents also know that sometimes teenagers drive too fast or take chances to impress their friends.

20 teenagers drive too fast or take chances to impress their friends.

I think that you should talk to your parents and agree on some rules together. One thing you could do is promise that you won't send or look at text messages while you're driving. You could also promise to call them when you stop driving. This way they'll know you're OK. Maybe if they know you are following these 25 rules, they won't watch you all the time.

I hope this helps.

Drive safely,

Dan
