15. Thinking Skill I chose: Inferring

Reading between the lines, I can see that George starts reading the books because he finally wants to take his life in his own hands and he understands that he is the only one who is responsible for his own life. George realizes that reading the books is the way start a new page in his life.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

17. Walker states in her quote that Frost uses nature in order to describe complex situations we experience in our lives in simple and accessible way. Walker's idea is shown in the poem "The Road not Taken" where Frost uses nature in order to describe a dilemma: he doesn't know which road to choose. This dilemma is actually a metaphor for a situation in life in which a person needs to make a choice that will have an impact on his life.

PART III

16. THANK YOU M'AM / Langston Hughes

Mrs. Jones teaches Roger that sometimes people get another chance. She wants him to understand that everyone has done something wrong and that he does not have to steal from others to get what he wants. Mrs. Jones tells Roger she also did things in her past that she regrets. She wants to show him she does not judge him. Mrs. Jones hopes her acts of kindness inspire Roger not to make mistakes again. She hopes Roger will change and will be able to have a good and successful life.
